Re: Jan Uttl (A) v. Anne Renzonnet (R)
Appeal No. 1701-0145AC

Type of Appeal and Procedural Issues

Your recently filed Notice of Appeal has been reviewed and the appeal has been categorized as a Fast Track appeal.

From the materials filed, it appears that the following procedural issues are outstanding:

A copy of the order/judgment under appeal has not been included with the Notice of Appeal. Please provide a filed copy of the order/judgment as soon as it is available.

A self-represented party is involved. It is always recommended that one seek legal advice. Some lawyers may provide limited scope retainers should you wish to retain them for only a specific portion of the appeal. Please contact a Resolution Support Centre for information on free or low-cost legal advice in your area. Also, in communications with the Court, please be reminded to always copy all other parties to the appeal with any correspondence.

Should you wish to provide a response, or if you require assistance with managing this appeal, please contact the Case Management Officer.

Deadlines / Timetables

A summarized version of appeal deadlines is available on the Court of Appeal's website under "Publications and Forms" – Filing Deadlines. There is an option to submit timetables for the appeal instead of following the deadlines set by the Rules of Court. A timetable sets out mutually-agreed upon deadlines for the filing of all materials, including the hearing date. The proposed timetable is sent to the Case Management Officer for approval. A sample timetable is available on the Court of Appeal's website under "Publications and Forms" – Filing Deadlines.

Judicial Dispute Resolution (JDR)

JDR is readily available at the Court of Appeal. Resolving a matter through JDR may result in the appeal being settled more expeditiously and at less expense than if it proceeded to hearing. A JDR may be initiated at any stage of the appeal proceedings. Further details on JDRs can be found in Division 5, Subdivision 4 of the Alberta Rules of Court, and in Part D of the Consolidated Practice Directions. Please contact the Case Management Officer if interested in JDR.

Resources

The Alberta Rules of Court and the Consolidated Practice Directions (CPD) of the Court of Appeal are available on the Court of Appeal website at <https://albertacourts.ca>. Please review the resources that are available on the website, which includes sample forms, precedents, FAQs, and sitting dates.
