RE: Jan Uttl v Anne Rensonnet
Appeal No. 1701-0145AC

Dear Sir/Madam,

I have received your letters dated May 29 and 30, 2017. I think the dates on these letters may be wrong, but if I understand correctly, there are now two options.

I am amenable to both of the options (a June 12 hearing with an extension of the deadline for filing my factum to June 5, or October 10 with the possibility of an earlier September date if available). My main concern was to have sufficient time to get my response Factum done and meet the filing deadline. As I expect and hope Mr Uttl will be returning to Canada and be available for his parenting time this weekend, I will then have enough time to work on the response Factum.

Regards,

Anne Rensonnet
