

Instructions for duty counsel regarding hearing in FL01-17010, Rensonnet v. Uttl morning or afternoon chambers, courtroom 1004

From: Jan Uttl

To: Duty Counsel

Counsel:

I am self-represented litigant, and I intend to represent myself. I have been a party to this litigation for last 4 years, and had successfully represented myself through few dozen applications, 10-day trial and 3 appeals.

I am the Applicant on this Application to set date for domestic special.

When it is time for the applicant to present my case, I intend to present it myself.

Please do not present any argument on my behalf. Please do not present an argument of the opposing party before I, the Applicant, present mine, unless the Court directs otherwise.

The reason for these instructions is that I have in the past experienced duty counsels who misunderstood the case, misrepresented the case to the Justice in the Court, and it took additional Court time to start all over and get it all straightened up.
